

Chapter One Web links:

Students:

To find if the school you are considering is accredited or not:

<http://ope.ed.gov/accreditation/search.aspx>

To find the “score” the federal government has given to the school(s) you are considering.

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/issues/education/higher-education/college-score-card>

Parents:

To find if the school your student is considering is accredited or not:

<http://ope.ed.gov/accreditation/search.aspx>

To find the “score” the federal government has given to the school(s) your student is considering.

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/issues/education/higher-education/college-score-card>

Chapter Two Web Links:

Students:

This link has a lot of information on education represented in table form.

http://nces.ed.gov/programs/digest/d12/tables/dt12_384.asp

Free Application for Financial Student Aid (FAFSA):

www.fafsa.gov

General information about college affordability:

<http://advocacy.collegeboard.org/college-affordability-financial-aid/college-affordable>

Loan Calculator

www.direct.ed.gov/calc.html

Scholarship Website

www.fastweb.com

Parents:

Free Application for Financial Student Aid (FAFSA):

www.fafsa.gov

Pell Grant citation. This site also includes a full report on student aid:

<https://trends.collegeboard.org/student-aid>

Loan Calculator

www.direct.ed.gov/calc.html.

Scholarship database:

www.fastweb.com